

Guangxi Province

Capital – Nanning

Population – 45 million

Guangxi is famous for its beautiful landscape where you can breathe fresh air and relax and enjoy this magnificent part of China.

A nearby city Guilin is famous for its scenery. The Li River cruise from Guilin to Yangshuo is unforgettable and you can also visit Reed Flute Cave, Seven Stars Park, and Fo Bo Hill which are all impressive.

Nanning has many attractions, one of which is Mt. Qingxiu, as well as scattered parks and gardens.

Delicious local foods such as various porridges and rice noodles as well as Suanye (fermented fruits and vegetables) cannot be enjoyed anywhere else in China.

Nanning is a modern city. Accommodation and shopping are diverse and well developed for visitors. Hotels and hostels of different standards can meet various needs. In the city's commercial center, supermarkets, department stores, specialty commodity streets, bookstores and other retail markets offer a variety of merchandise.

